Number	Education Programs - Partnership and Collaboration Name	Partnership and Collaboration Description - Please provide a brief description of the partnership and collaboration (about 50 words or less).	Description of PreK-12 School Needs - Briefly describe (about 50 words or less) how the partnership and collaboration meet the identified needs of the PreK-12 community.	Partners and Collaborators - Please list the names of the entities that took part in the partnership and collaboration.	Evidence of Agreement - Is there written documentation with the partners and collaborators? Yes or No?
1.	Shelton Park Reading Partnership	Students are given the opportunity to observe reading instruction for five hours in an elementary reading classroom or various reading classrooms. This allows students in the reading course to see how teachers implement the programs.	While working in the elementary classrooms, students observe reading instruction provided to groups and individuals. Students can assist with reading tasks.	Dr. Jayne Sullivan, Reading Professor VWC; LouAnne Metzger, Principal, Shelton Park Elementary; Stacey Wollerton, Director of Field Experiences; and students enrolled in EDUC 320.	No
2.	Student Teaching Placements (Virginia Beach, Chesapeake, Norfolk)	Student teachers are placed in two settings in two local school divisions. Students seeking elementary certification are placed in K-3 and 4-5; students seeking secondary certification are placed in middle and high schools; special education students are placed in elementary and high school; and K-12 certification are placed in elementary and high school.	Students are responsible for all aspects of the day to day instruction of their 7.5 week placement. Students plan and provide direct instruction under the supervision of a cooperating teacher and college supervisor.	Stacey Wollerton, Director of Field Experiences; student teaching supervisors; cooperating teachers from local school divisions; and administrators from local school divisions.	No
3.	Practicum Field Experiences Elementary PreK-6, Secondary 6-12, K-12, Middle School, Special Education (Virginia Beach, Chesapeake, Norfolk)	All practicum students spend a total of 80 hours (50 supervised) in the field covering all areas of their certification levels. Special Education students spend an additional 25 hours in a placement with a school psychologist to observe and participate in testing administration and interpretation.	Students often assist with groups or individual students, allowing the teacher more time to work with others. Students plan and provide direct instruction for three lessons under the supervision of a cooperating teacher.	Stacey Wollerton, Director of Field Experiences; course instructors; and cooperating teachers from local school divisions.	No
4.	Virginia Wesleyan College National Board Certification Support Program	Virginia Wesleyan College, in partnership with the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS) and the Southeast Virginia National Board Certified Teacher Regional Network (SEVA), has developed and coordinates the program to support Virginia Region II teachers in all aspects of National Board Certification, covering all contents areas K-12.	The Program offers pre-candidate and active candidate professional development and guided study courses, mentors, mentor workshops, recognition receptions, National Board Academies, Outreach information sessions, and coordination for all NBPTS initiatives.	Virginia Wesleyan College (VWC); the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS); and the Southeast Virginia National Board Certified Teacher Regional Network (SEVA).	Yes
5.	The Take Five Program	In collaboration with Southside Hampton Roads school divisions, Virginia Wesleyan College provides a 50 percent tuition reduction for all provisionally licensed teachers.	Take Five is an opportunity offered to all provisionally licensed teachers to provide an academic and financial incentive to complete the VDOE course requirements and enhance the retention of provisionally licensed teachers to full licensure.	Virginia Wesleyan College; Norfolk Public Schools; Chesapeake Public Schools; Suffolk Public Schools; Virginia Beach City Public Schools; and Portsmouth Public Schools.	Yes
6.	Special Education	In collaboration with Norfolk Public Schools, students seeking special education certification shadow a school psychologist for 10 hours to observe the administration of tests for the identification of special education services.	This program helps meet the needs of the community by providing students an opportunity to be more knowledgeable about the testing process.	Virginia Wesleyan College; and Norfolk Public Schools, coordinated through Dr. Harolyn Katherman.	No
